

BOEMax Compared to PROPRICER

Feature	BOEMax	PROPRICER	Notes
Built-in workflow to manage the proposal process: define roles, forms, routing rules, work queue with transaction audit trail and versioning	✓	X
Built-in reporting, easy to use report wizard to produce pivot tables and ad hoc reports	✓	X	PROPRICER requires add-on
Ability to enter rich text with the BOE rationale and other documentation along with the cost estimate in the same database	✓	X	PROPRICER requires a MS Word add-in, documentation is not part of the database
Integrated estimating and pricing	✓	X	Must import estimates into PROPRICER, functions are not integrated
Import, parse, and map statement of work (SOW) requirements to the WBS	✓	X
Produce WBS dictionary documents, ability to include rich text documentation with the WBS	✓	X	PROPRICER requires MS Word add-in
Easy to use grid view similar to Excel to enter data with built-in hierarchical structure to view the data at summary, intermediate, and detail levels	✓	X
Perform global updates using filters and similar Excel type functions	✓	X
Integrates bi-directionally with Microsoft Project and Oracle Primavera P6	✓	X
Combine time phased data and documentation in one report	✓	X
Produce single project, multi-project, or enterprise level portfolio analysis and staffing reports	✓	X
Lock capability at the WBS level	✓	X
Hierarchical bills of material (BOM)	✓	X	PROPRICER BOM is a flat list
Use the cost estimate data as the basis for the performance measurement baseline (PMB) budget data after contract award	✓	X
Agile release cycles	✓	X
SaaS subscription option available compliant with FedRAMP security requirements	✓	X	